Military Veterans Resource Center announces new appointment to board of directors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (April 14, 2015) – Military Veterans Resource Center today announced the addition of Brad Howard of Hudson, Ohio to its board of directors.

Howard is a Senior Manager at EY where he serves as a leader in the company’s Pension Risk practice. Prior to his role at EY, Howard was a Senior Manager at Deloitte Consulting for ten years and an Associate at Towers Perrin for five years.

Howard holds a bachelor’s of science degree in mathematics from Kent State University and a certificate in business analytics from the Kelley School of Business at Indiana University. He is a Fellow of the Society of Actuaries, a Fellow of the Conference of Consulting Actuaries and a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries.

“Brad brings diverse experience and a valuable perspective to our board. We are fortunate to have his guidance as we continue to grow in our mission,” said MVRC Executive Director Len Proper.

Howard’s appointment expands the MVRC board of directors from seven to eight members. Over the coming months, MVRC will continue its search for additional members committed to the cause of helping Ohio’s veterans and their families.

Military Veterans Resource Center’s mission is to provide comprehensive services and information that enables veterans who served honorably to become self-reliant in managing career and life decisions. MVRC is a non-profit organization based in Columbus and operates five centers throughout Ohio. For additional information, please visit www.milvetsrc.org
