Military Veterans Resource Center to host open house on June 23

HAMILTON, Ohio (June 9, 2015) – Military Veterans Resource Center (MVRC) will host an Open House on Tuesday, June 23 to celebrate the opening of their new resource center, located at 633 High St., Ste. 101 in Hamilton. The event is open to the public and will last from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

“We’re excited to welcome the community into our new space and share the services we provide veterans and their families,” said MVRC Executive Director Len Proper.

MVRC staff members will be on hand to give tours and answer questions about Military Veterans Resource Center. Government officials and representatives from local veterans organizations will also attend to greet veterans and community members.

For more information about Military Veterans Resource Center or the Open House, contact Dan Dunaway at 513-252-2395 or dan.dunaway@milvetsrc.org.

Military Veterans Resource Center’s mission is to help veterans who served honorably access the resources they need to become self-reliant in managing their career and life decisions. MVRC is based in Columbus and operates five centers throughout Ohio. For additional information, please visit www.milvetsrc.org.
