FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Veterans Day food drive will serve Ohio vets this Thanksgiving season

COLUMBUS, Ohio (Oct. 21, 2015) – Over 140,000 veterans in Ohio rely on food pantries and meal services to feed themselves and their families. This Veterans Day, help Egan-Ryan Funeral Services give back to Ohio’s veterans and families in need and donate non-perishable food items to their Veterans Day Food Drive.

“Generations of the Ryan family have served in the military, and we wish to provide, at this time of year when many reflect with thanksgiving on their blessings, an opportunity to thank some of those who helped defend our way of life,” said Robert Ryan, co-owner and president of Egan-Ryan Funeral Services.

Food donations, personal care items and monetary donations will be accepted at both Egan-Ryan locations on weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. until the main collection day on Veterans Day, which will take place from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. They are located at 403 E. Broad St. and 4661 Kenny Rd in Columbus.

Military Veterans Resource Center’s (MVRC) Veterans Food Bank will be the recipient of all donations. MVRC is a non-profit organization that helps veterans who served honorably access the resources they need to manage their career and life decisions. MVRC provides food, employment, and supportive services to veterans and families and is located at 1395 E. Dublin-Granville Rd, Ste. 350 in Columbus.
