Military Veterans Resource Center's 2nd annual career fair will feature over 30 military friendly employers

DAYTON, Ohio (Dec. 18, 2014) – Military Veterans Resource Center invites all job seeking veterans and spouses to attend the 2nd annual New Year, New Career military career fair on Wednesday, Jan. 14, 2015. The career fair is free of charge for attendees and will feature over 30 of Dayton's top military friendly employers. The event will take place at the Wright-Patterson Air Force Base in the Hope Hotel & Richard C. Holbrooke Conference Center, located at 10823 Chidlaw Road. It will run from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

"Companies across industries are attending and will be looking for qualified veterans to fill immediate openings," said MVRC Executive Director Len Proper. "Last year, over 200 military job seekers attended. Many received interview invitations and were connected with their current employer."

Participants should bring their resume and be prepared to speak with potential employers about their skill sets and experiences. Professionals will also be on hand to review resumes and help attendees improve their interview skills.

Veterans interested in attending the career fair can pre-register by contacting Kelley Koons at 937-329-9559, or kelley.koons@milvetsrc.org.

Military Veterans Resource Center is a non-profit organization that provides personalized career services to veterans who served honorably. It works with veterans to identify the obstacles preventing them from gaining employment and helps them access the resources to overcome those obstacles. The organization is based in Columbus and operates six centers throughout Ohio. For additional information, please visit www.milvetsrc.org.
